Defendants.	)

This matter is before the court on the oral motion of defendant Dahir Sahal (Sahal) for an extension of the pretrial motion deadline. The motion was made during the arraignment on the Indictment on May 26, 2011. The government had no objection to the motion. Sahal acknowledged the additional time needed for her motion would be excluded under the calculations under the Speedy Trial Act. The oral motion was granted as to both defendants.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Sahal's motion for an extension of time to file pretrial motions is granted. Sahal and Mohamed shall have to on or before July 15, 2011, in which to file pretrial motions in accordance with the progression order.
2. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time from the government's deadline for discovery and the pretrial motion deadline, i.e., from June 3, 2011, through July 15, 2011, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason defendants' counsel require additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 26th day of May, 2011.
